

NICHOLA

Can you help me?

You are watching TV..
... and it's MMA fighting!

I'm learning!

It's important, so I can protect you!

When there is a zombie apocalypse!

HAHA!

What's a zombie?

I'm not talking to you!

What's a zombie?

Oh you haven't met Shin yet?

A cartoon illustration depicting a dark, horror-themed scene. In the foreground, a red, bipedal creature with a wide, toothy grin and small horns stands on a dark, textured ground. Behind it, a woman's head is severed from its body and floats in the air. The woman has dark hair, large eyes, and a shocked expression, with a pool of red liquid visible at the neck. A speech bubble originates from the floating head, containing the text "What about me?". The background is dark and indistinct, with some green foliage visible in the upper right corner.

What about me?

Ahh! Don't scare me like that!

Sorry, I just came from the local zombie council meeting...

Zombie Resources goal this year is to evaluate loss prevention and safety awareness for zombies by updating all evaluation and shelter notices throughout the province. I'm hoping to be part of the Safety Committee myself. I put forward a proposal-

SO BORING!

Zombies are so boring! Let's go!

Come on you limey bastard!

I don't know what means

A cartoon illustration of a street scene. In the foreground, a person wearing a red hoodie and red pants stands with their back to the viewer, facing a person in a green jacket and grey pants. A large white speech bubble originates from the person in the red hoodie, containing the text "I might have googled some insults for people like you". The background shows a grey wall on the left, a yellow wall on the right, and green trees under a blue sky.

I might have googled some insults for people like you

I don't know what that means either
